Hi Willy,

Happy Friday. I just spoke with our CFO and it looks like we are a bit behind because of the filing earlier this week. He expects that we will have the funds to make the final purchase next week but I'll keep you updated.

Thank you,

Good morning Willy,

I'm flying to Indiana to ensure that the machines are being connected. I spoke with Todd yesterday and we are working on finalizing the financing timing for the last 600 machines. It appears that we are looking at later this week at the earliest. I will keep you updated as the timing becomes more clear.

We are anxious to make the payment so we can receive the machines and get them running.

Thank you,

BTW, your 1st shipment delivered yesterday, as scheduled.

Hi Willy,

I'm back in town today and went right into meetings. I'm working to get Todd between meetings so we can call you together on the next opportunity.

However, we are working on the financing and hope to make the final payment this week. I'll let you know when I get time slots from Todd.

We need to move these machines. I would like to get a firm response as to why this is being delayed and when payment will be finalized.

It is unjust to request extension of payment without giving us information on a new ship date.

Good morning Willy,

I'm am very sorry for the delayed reply. I have been in Indiana working to ensure that all the machines are unboxed and started. Todd has been at a Microcap convention in Las Vegas as a speaker this week so we both have been out of pocket. We expect to be able to talk today about the timing of the financing for the 600 machines. I have power and rack space to start them immediately so I want them right away. I expect that we are looking at early next week but please let me connect with Todd today and get back with our final plan.

Subject: SCM 600 machine update

Hello Willy,

I'm emailing to make it clear that SCM will honor our obligation to finalize the purchase of the last 600 machines. We however had a number of transactions occur recently, at the parent company level, related to acquisitions and growth. These transactions created unexpected delays and approvals that have delayed our ability to meet the original timeline/plan. With that said, we still will purchase the machines and will honor our obligation with you.

We appreciate your understanding and willingness to think creatively on a solution. The attorneys and the board are unable to approve new agreements or special arrangements so we are going to have to hold to our original plan to pay as soon as feasibly possible. The circumstances change daily so I'm unable to provide an exact date at this time but will continue to provide updates as they come. Your payment is a priority for us.

If you so choose, we would be willing to place the 600 machines in our Indiana location and pay you in BTC every week on what we mine. This would simply be a way to speed up the payment if you where interested in this as an option. I'm estimating for example that those 600 machines could mine approximately .4 BTC per day. At $7,500 BTC that would be $3,000 USD per day or $21,000 USD per week. Our CFO has approved that we could transfer the roughly 2.8 BTC (.4 per day x 7 days) each week from our wallet to yours.

As you know, I wish I could have found a better solution but offer what I'm able to at this time.

Thank you,

Darren Magot

Obviously very disappointed not to have received a response.

We have given our best efforts to work with you in good faith. With an understanding of your financial difficulties, we granted you many extensions to your payment obligations arising under the agreement, which are now months overdue. However despite your repeated assurances for payment, you continue to fail to satisfy the outstanding balance owed to us.

We maintain that you have not demonstrated any good faith in return, (other than the $5000.00), since our telephone conversation of 2 weeks ago where you stated that the machines will be paid off in 10 business days from that time. We note that this has not occurred.

We have agreed to your proposed guarantee, yet you still failed to present any further financial plan and commitment. Understandably, we needed to see that you are liquid if we were to continue to enter into any payment arrangement with you.

You have delayed us more than commercially reasonable. Unfortunately these extensions of time have come to an end.

We must now declare you in default of our contract and will be handing this over to our U.S.

Attorney. Be advised that once legal action will commence, we will be seeking our full damages in addition to pre and post judgement interest as well as our full legal fees.

We apologize that it has come to this, however without action from you, you have given us no other choice than to commence suit.

Very disheartening to receive your last email!

I have agreed to your version of the guarantee without changes, and you still can't send it back signed?! I have given endless extensions, and been assured of payment from your side countless times, but this is pushing things...

I need the guarantee along with your new proposed payment plan signed this morning from you.

I'm willing to work with you one last time to get this resolved.

I will accept a maximum extension of that first payment by Tuesday next week, so you can adjust that in the contract if absolutely needed on your end.

But I reiterate, I must have the guarantee signed from your side this morning.

I'm being told that the funding is coming but that I can't yet commit to the full payment today or this week. I know that you want something that you can count on and that is clearly outlined. I believe that had some money wired today and I'll find out how much from his banking manager. I have to find out more and will do so in order to finalize the agreement in a way that outlines feasible terms that will be met. I'm sure you agree that we can't have anymore missed commitments.

More to come.

Hi Willy,

I know and struggle with it as well. I'm told that it's a matter of being consistent across the board with any guaranty. They won't consider any changes because of this objective to not customize or deviate from a standard previously approved document.

I hope that after reading it again that we can move forward.

The agreement amendment is fine but for some reason the attorney repeated only the boiler plate terms but left out some other terms.

Just to be clear we have simplified / modified it so that all is clear.

In addition, Your version had final payment date as July 31/18 but previously you had requested it to be Aug. 15/18. So we have inserted that change.

The amendment now states the new payment terms and that you will be able to pick up the machines once the 1st payment is received.

All other terms and conditions remain the same as original agreement.

Please sign the attached agreement and return to me today along with the guarantee.

This should finally bring your pick up of the machines to a close.

Hi Willy,

We wanted to be sure that you saw our announcement today where we got approval to raise $23.50 million and we have begun that process to repay all outstanding debts. <https://finance.yahoo.com/news/dpw-holdings-announces-25-million-105000065.html>

We would like to proceed by paying the current outstanding balance with the funds raised via the preferred outlined above. We expect funds to begin to become available as soon as next week so we expect to have a clearly outlined payment plan for both the machines as well as the storage invoice. It really just depends on the effectiveness of our marketing plan that will begin on Monday.
